

Banking

Brightwater's specialist banking division addresses the recruitment needs of the Irish and international banking markets. The team has a wealth of finance and recruitment experience and provides a truly consultative service to an impressive portfolio of clients and an extensive database of job seekers.

Our areas of expertise include:

- Compliance
- Back-Office
- Middle-Office
- Corporate Banking
- Investment Management
- Stockbroking
- Treasury
- Private Banking
- Portfolio Management
- Restructuring

As the banking sector responds to increasing demands for new and expanded products and services, more and more career opportunities arise within the market for both sales and finance professionals. Companies setting up in regions other than the traditional city locations have also contributed to the range of opportunities available within the banking sector.

Our Service to You

At Brightwater, we pride ourselves in our superior levels of service. Brightwater offers a truly consultative service to both client and candidate from the very start of the recruitment process to completion. Our commitment to service and our technical expertise sets us aside from our competitors. We also offer additional services such as providing salary surveys and information on current market trends. We take great pride in building successful and lasting working partnerships with both employers and jobseekers.
